

Parashat Chayei Sarah

Candlelighting

Light Candles

Friday night 5:06 PM

Havdalah 6:00 PM

Dear Chevre,

Please join me for services this Shabbat, sedra CHAYEI SARAH.

As usual, we will meet at the JCC and on Zoom, at 10 AM.

In this sedra, we read the following: "And Abraham expired, and died in a good old age, an old man, full of years."

This is the kind of epitaph which every one of us should aspire to deserve.

Many people who have lived long lives realize in the end that their years were neither full nor satisfying.

How did Abraham achieve a "good old age, full of years?"

In tracing his outstanding features, we discover that Abraham's whole life was predicated upon FAITH IN GOD and upon SERVICE TO HIS FELLOW MEN!

Be a "Meal Mitzvah" Shomrei Torah Mensche!!

The Arizona Kosher Food Pantry (in Central Phoenix) needs volunteers. As a Mitzvah Project, we would like to have a Shomrei Torah contingency of volunteers. The predetermined time commitment can be whatever you can spare. Assisting would include (to be determined on the needs of any given day):

- help packaging food
- stocking shelves
- assisting patrons
- cleaning

More information at: www.azkosherpantry.org

If YOU are interested and could spare even just a small amount of time, please respond back to shomreitorah18@gmail.com no later than Sun., Nov. 24th. Once we have a group established, we will schedule a tour/orientation. After that, you will be able to decide your time commitment to this much needed mitzvah project.

Let's show our "caring community" spirit and send a large group to the tour/orientation!! Thanks!
